| Source | 1) When was the image created?
2) Who created the image?
3) What kind of visual image is it?
4) For what audience was the image created?
5) Why are these pieces of information important? |
|---|---|
| Observe | 1) List everything you see in the image – people, what they're wearing, facial expressions, animals, plants, celestial bodies, mythical creatures, structures, objects, etc.
2) What evidence in the image helps you understand why it was created? |
| Contextualize | 1) After examining this document, what can we say for sure about the world in which it was created?
2) Do you know of other events, people, and places from this era? List them
3) Using this information, what deeper meaning can you extract from this image? In what context can you place this image? |
| Corroborate | 1) To what use would you put this image as a historian?
2) What questions do you have that would help you understand this image further?
2) What evidence (primary or secondary) would help you answer your questions? Where would you go next? |