

- Map shows first migratory routes taken by humans, based on surveys of different types of the male Y chromosome. "Adam" represents the common ancestor from which all Y chromosomes descended
 - Research based on DNA testing of 10,000 people from indigenous populations around the world
- Source: The Genographic Project*

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/science/nature/4435009.stm>